

I would like to express my desire to retain Indiana's "No-Call" rule as is. It has been wonderful not to have to my evenings at home or my early morning weekend hours interrupted by unsolicited telephone marketing calls. Indiana's efforts have been very effective.